

SIS-E Olympics Programme. 7th June, Crown Plaza Hotel. Athens (Greece)

16:00-16:15	Welcome: I. Rubio-Perez, SIS-E Education Committee Chair. Chairs & Expert panel: Marjolein Blussé van Oudalblas, members of the SIS-E Council.
Presentation and discussion of the 6 best cases on surgical infections
16:15-17:15	Cases 1-3 &amp; Discussion 1- Diverticular pelvic abscess complicated with gluteal and thigh myositis and sciatic nerve impaired function Polyxeni Kizgala (Greece) 2- Acute diverticulitis or metastatic cancer? Comprehensive differential diagnosis of an abdominal mass associated with multiple hepatic lesions. Begoña Peinado (Spain) 3- Spontaneous fistulation of gluteal abscess to the peritoneal cavity – a rare cause of acute abdomen. Stavros Parasyris (Greece)
17:15-17:30	Coffee break
17:30- 18:30	Cases 4-6 &amp; Discussion 4- The nightmare of infected mesh after incisional hernia repair: how should we proceed? Luis Asensio-Gómez (Spain) 5- Large abdominal wall hernia, infected mesh with fistula, morbid obesity and COPD: operation impossible or an interesting challenge? Max Ditzel (Netherlands) 6- Contained diverticular perforation conditioning fasciitis through the left groin due to extrusion of polypropylene mesh from previous hernioplasty Arantxa Villadóniga Sánchez (Spain)
18:30-18:45	Evaluation survey (feedback) & closing remarks
18:45-19:00	Selection of the best 3 cases. Prize giving