

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME SIS-E ATHENS 2018

Friday 8th June		Saturday 9th June
8:00-18:00	Registration	8:30-18:00	Registration
8:30-9:00	Congress welcome	9:00-10:00	Symposium III: the abdomen and infection <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Relaparotomy in emergency surgery: planned or on-demand? - Key concepts in management of the open abdomen for infection source control
9:00-10:30	Free paper session 1	10:00-11:30	Free paper session 3
10:30-11:00	Coffee break & Poster Round I	11:30-12:00	Coffee break & Poster Round II
11:00-12:30	Symposium I: update on antimicrobial resistance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Resistant bacteria: who's who? Basics a surgeon should know - Clinical & epidemiological impact of resistance in surgical patients - Strategies against resistance & stewardship 	12:00-13:30	Symposium III: Global surgical infections In collaboration with WSES (World Society of Emergency Surgery), SIS-NA, OASIS and WSIS alliance (World Surgical Infection Society)
12:30-13:00	Young Investigator Lecture	13:30-14:10	Meet the Editor: how to write your paper on surgical infections. Tips and tricks from BJS Editor.
13:00-13:30	Semmelweis lecture
13:30-14:30	Lunch & Sponsor Exhibition	14:10-15:15	Lunch & Sponsor Exhibition
14:30-16:00	Free paper session 2	15:15-15:45	Pro/con debate: mechanical bowel prep for colorectal surgery to reduce SSI?
16:00-17:00	Practice-changing trials in surgical infections (3 trials to be discussed)	15:45-16:30	Video forum
17:00-17:30	Refreshment break	16:30-17:00	Refreshment break
17:30-18:30	Symposium II: new developments and spotlight topics in surgical infections (new antibiotics)	17:18:30	Complex corner: educational clinical case scenarios in surgical infections
18:30-19:00	Keynote lecture: history of surgical infections	18:30-19:30	SIS-E Members Business Meeting
21:00	Congress diner		